Suggesting treason and sedition. Suggesting worse. That is what the conservatives of America have become.

Today's slice of Idiot Pie comes to you courtesy of the following people at FoxnationDOTcom. I got these from the red meat article in the OPINION page.

The mainstream media is one of the reasons Ovomit is where he is at today.They will hide any type of small uprising as long as they can.It has to be a very large movement,so it cannot be hidden.Something to get started with like what Glenn Beck started at the mall in DC a few years ago with massive crowds.Then the main stream media will have to start reporting.

LMAO. This basshole actually believes that there are incidents of armed revolution happening all over the country, and the media is hiding them. Every one with a cell phone, they must be ignoring them. Hilarious. This genius also posted the following, which reveals the level of paranoia that replaces reasoned thinking in the rightwing.

This government and its state of being is the reason the framers guaranteed the people the 2nd amendment

I think it is time we exercised the right. If they try and stop us from abolishing them from their lofty places of rulership. Then they have tipped their hand as to their real intent for America. A small group of lawmakers who have assumed a stance of dictatorship over the people.

Fear is not going to hold back the people forever. Eventually a spark will set off the powder-keg of revolution and the ones in DC will flee for their lives. They are the ones forcing this on us in direct violation of the oath they swore to uphold. We demand representation. We demand that we hold the power over our governance. We are the people.

This pile of conservative lunacy continues. He is clearly not wrapped too tightly.

We the people cannot get them to represent us. So there will be no imeachment.

We are ruled not governed . We can fix this rulership issue if we want to.

And this butthurt little conservative, still stinging from full-on repudiation of his masters agenda, got a reply.

@Revolutioniscoming @hidad @rcaamo

LIBSRBEDWTRS

YES-----we have GUNS----IF the EGYPTIANS who are protesting now had guns----MORSI would be DEAD already

Which brought this response from the almost ejaculating "revolution" guy.

That is a fact! And we need to use and exercise the 2nd amendment for the purpose it was given to us. To shove off tyranny and oppressive government

These foxnationdotcom denizens, who can barely speak English, appear to be plotting a violent act. When will they do it? When will our FBI and Secret Service investigate FoxNationdotCom as a place where treasonous and seditious people are congregating? When?
